MICHAEL TROYER (sometimes referred to as David Michael) Swiss-German spellings-TREUER-DRIER-DREHIER-DREIER-DREHER)

BORN: 1734 - Trub Valley, Canton Bern, Sector Emmental - Switzerland

DIED: April, 1807 - Somerset Co., Pennsylvania U.S.A.
Will dated 1803

MARRIED: MAGDALENA MAST (or Mest) b. 1735 d. Mar. 13, 1827 in Holmes Co., Ohio on the farm of her daughter Frana (over 90 years old) Magdalena is buried in Cemetery O-29 Holmes Co., Ohio (Roman D. Miller farm in 1984) 1½ miles S. & 3/4 miles W. of Walnut Creek, Holmes Co., Ohio (picture in Archives Files - Brampton)

It is mentioned in the Descendants of Daniel D. Miller and Lydia B. Troyer 1847-1974 compiled by Oscar R. Miller, Box 229, Berlin, Ohio 44610 that Michael Troyer was married twice (first wife unknown, who bore him John, Michael, Christian, Barbara, Magdalena, Anna, Jacob and Henry). Definite evidence has not as yet been found to support this theory).

Magdalena Mast arrived on the same ship as Immigrant Michael (Holly) Troyer under the guardianship of her uncle Johannes Mast, and accompanied by her brothers Jacob & John and three sisters. They were apparently orphans. Jacob was later Bishop Jacob Mast married to Magdalena Holly.

EMIGRATED: ▲ Arrived from Switzerland on November 3rd, 1750 (16 Yrs. old) on the ship "Brotherhood" at Philadelphia, Pa., U.S.A. with mother, stepfather Johannes Holly and Mr. Holly's brother Andreas Holly.Δ Stories conflict on whether or not the mother actually arrived or died enroute, since Mr. Johannes Holly apparently redeemed the Troyer boy on arrival at port and his name appears on the Passenger Lists for the "Brotherhood" on November 3rd, 1750 as having the last name of "Holly".

▲ Verified in "Pennsylvania German Pioneers" List 159C from ship "Brotherhood" November 3, 1750.

Δ Information re: Andreas Holly from John Murray, Kouts, Indiana, whose mother is descended from Andreas.

It is assumed that since this family does not appear in French Anabaptist history records that our Troyers came from Pfalzer regions. It is believed that the Mennonite route in Europe led them first to Alsace and then the Palatinate in Germany. It is also believed that Michael Troyer's father probably came to the Palatinate first (or Alsace) since the family bible found in Ohio was a Froschauer Bible printed in Strassburg, Alsace (not Swiss). There is also the relation to the Hollys, who it is known came from near Oberdiessbach, Switzerland and settled near Pirmasens, Palatinate, Germany (Christian Holly in 1718).

PARENTS: Father - David (who died in Europe) b. c. 1707
Mother - Veronica (Frani) married Johannes Holly as second husband before arriving in U.S.
Note: The "Badische Landesarchiv" lists an Andres Treyler (Treyer) at Alzey in 1717 (possibly immigrant Michael's father or grandfather??)

SETTLED: Berks Co., and then to Bedford Co. (now Somerset Co., Pa.) in 1773

m. DAVID MILLER b. October 2, 1779 Berks Co., Pa.
d. March 30, 1853

Both David and Elizabeth are buried in Cemetery O-29 Walnut Creek, Holmes Co., Ohio (Roman D. Miller farm) 1½ mi. S. & 3/4 mi. W. of Walnut Creek - NW¼ of R5, T8, S2. David's grave is marked with a stone inscribed "DM 1840". The north fence of this cemetery lies along the south boundary of the SW¼ of Sec. 2 on which David & Elizabeth settled in 1814, deeded Dec. 2, 1814. On April 2, 1815 he also purchased the SW¼ of the same section. The stone on the other side of David's stone is marked "AM" and this is believed to be the stone of Andrew, David's son, who died single at the age of about 21. Also in this cemetery are two other stones inscribed "DM" and "EM" which might appear to be those of David and Elizabeth, however these two stones have footstones to go with them and the footstones are so close to the headstones that it is thought infants are buried here. David and Elizabeth transferred some of their extensive land holdings to sons Jonas, Michael and David Jr. in the years 1830 and 1836. David left no will when he died in 1840. Elizabeth had apparently died before this as she is not mentioned in the court action which followed David's death. When he died David left 10 living children: Daniel, Michael, Noah, David, Yost, Jacob, Elizabeth, Benjamin, Joseph and Andrew. His son Moses had died in 1835 at age thirteen. Sons Jonas, Stephen and Simon had married, died before their father and each left one or more minor children. Guardians were appointed for David's minor children, Joseph and Andrew--Henry Schrock, Jacob Mast and John Shrock were appointed to settle the estate.

NOTE: David Miller is mentioned in Immigrant Michael's will dated 1803 as his son-in-law.

SPECIAL NOTES:

'he only members of this family to emigrate to Canada were JOHN and CHRISTIAN.' 'ohn settled in Walsingham Township on Lake Erie (near Simcoe) and Christian ettled in Walsingham Township and then to Vaughan Township (north of 'oronto). Christian is also credited with bringing 35 more families from 'a. to settle in Canada. Other members of the family might have come o Canada for a visit, however none of the other brothers and sisters migrated permanently to Canada.

t is recorded that in 1527 one Hans Dreyer, sometimes called Treyer, with three ther ministers were sentenced by Swingli to be drowned. This edict was, however, ot carried out at once for in July of 1528 they were given another hearing whose rticles are recorded in "Rathsmanual". They were afterwards led to a crosstreet, here they were challenged to repent or be drowned. They remained steadfast in their aith and were drowned in the Aare River, near the present railraod bridge. They were he first Anabaptist Martyrs in Bern. Another Anabaptist is listed at Lausen, Basel in 529-30 by names of Hans Treyer and another Anna Treyer, who is possibly his wife. ikewise from the same place in Basel came Jacob Treyer, who was in February of 1529 entenced to death by sword of his faith. He was taken out on the street where his erdict was read, whereupon he fell on his knees and asked for pardon. The Judge ffered him pardon if he would recant which he could not resist. He recalled his aith for pardon and was spared of the sword (Samuel Geiser, page 181).
